

QESTIT and Novum-RGI Announce Strategic Partnership

Cologne, July 23, 2024 - QESTIT, Europe's leading provider of Quality Assurance and software testing, and Novum-RGI, an innovative IT partner for insurers, have formed a strategic partnership. The aim of this collaboration is to offer innovative and high-quality software solutions for the insurance industry and support the sector's digital transformation.

Bringing over 25 years of QA and software testing expertise, QESTIT complements Novum-RGI's robust solutions and methodologies, which address the economic and technical challenges of digital transformation, ensuring the future-readiness of insurance businesses. With QESTIT's knowledge, Novum-RGI can help clients implement their digital strategies with unparalleled quality and security.

"As a strategic partner, we have an in-depth understanding of Novum-RGI's solutions and can efficiently support quality-assured digital transformation for our clients," says Achim Rabien, Managing Director at QESTIT. "We understand the challenges and offer comprehensive testing solutions with optimized automation strategies, acting as accelerators for Novum-RGI and our clients."

Novum-RGI develops software solutions for insurance core systems and offers them as a cloud service with a flexible pay-as-you-go pricing model. The Novum Cloud Platform enables insurers to overcome economic and technical challenges of digital transformation and secure their business for the future.

Together, QESTIT and Novum-RGI will drive the digitalization of the insurance industry and set the highest quality standards.
